SHERB THROWN TWICE

Fitz Hanson Too Much For St. Johnsbury's Strong Man

Thursday night, Sherb went down to defeat at the hand of Fitz Hanson, world's welter-weight champion. The match was for the New Hampshire and Vermont title, and though Sherb outwitted Hanson, he was almost continually on the defensive, and the Swede had the match well in hand all the time, though he had to work hard to win. Sherb took a lot of punishment, especially around his head, and his face was puffed up when he returned after the fifteen minute rest. Hanson concentrated his attack on Sherb's head, figuring that Sherb is always on the defensive when the toe-hold is imminent, and realizing soon after the start that Sherb was too heavy to be thrown by body holds.

Hanson tried various holds but was unsuccessful. Sherb's strength freed him from several bad predicaments, but the worst hold he encountered was a head scissors and arm hold. Three times the Norseman got this hold on Sherb but could not pin him to the mat. Sherb realized he was up against a more skillful man, for he did not continue offensive operations long for Hanson would change a hold of Sherb's into a move to his own advantage with apparent ease. For 41 minutes the men wrestled with constant shifting of positions and then Sherb could not break the head scissors and was pinned to the mat for the first fall.

On the return the men were on their feet for over 5 minutes, both looking for an opening, and it was Hanson who caused them to take to the mat by kicking Sherb's feet from under him and in 12 minutes from the beginning of the second try Fritz had another head scissor that Sherb could not break and the match was over.

FILLING ITS RANKS

Company D To Be Ready If Called For Military Service—Plans For Maneuvers.

Capt. H. A. Wilcox of Company D, is busy these days filling the ranks of Company D, to the required number of men and officers in case a call is issued for the militia to serve in the Mexican war. Before the war agitation began the company had 55 men and officers but the government calls for 68 men and officers. Recruits have been coming in since it was known there was a possibility of being called out. Last week six new men were added to the roster and last week more joined. So the Captain will have the full number whenever the call comes.

It will be already for active service too as a recent inspection showed the men fully equipped. It is possible some changes will be made in the membership in case of a call being issued because the military authorities have decided that no married enlisted men shall be allowed to enter the United States volunteer service, whether they are now members of the National Guard or not, unless they can show that their families will be suitably provided for. Married men who are already enlisted will not be discharged at the present time, but companies having such men on their rolls will take that fact into consideration in securing of additional men.

In his orders Adjutant-General L. S. Tillotson also says: "In addition to securing the recruits as directed in the preceding paragraph, you will also secure a list of suitable men to a sufficient number to raise your company to at least war strength. These additional men will not be enlisted until further orders and no expense for physical examinations or otherwise will be incurred in this respect."

Should a call come the Vermont men undoubtedly would gather at the state camp ground near Fort Ethan Allen and Capt. Wilcox could have his men entrained within 24 hours from the time of receiving the call. The company is well equipped but a few members of the company are out of the state and would have to be notified.

The regular inspection of Co. D, by a federal officer is booked for the second week in May and will be held then unless the call to service comes before then.

Capt. Wilcox received a letter Monday from Adjutant-General Lee S. Tillotson saying that the plan was to call the company out for maneuvers with the government troops in Massachusetts for 10 days during the first two weeks of August. These plans of course are contingent upon the developments in the Mexican affair.

SHERIFF DOING GOOD WORK

Edwin Temple Located in New York. Twenty-Six Barrels of Beer Seized at the Freight Station

Some time ago a burglar entered Roy Brothers boarding house at East Barret and made way with several mileages, a watch, and a revolver. A few days later, someone entered a room in the hotel at West Burke and took several valuables. An investigation proved that the same man did both jobs, and he was traced through Canada and into New York state, where he was apprehended at Fort Ann. He was arrested at that place and gave his name as Edwin Temple. Temple was brought to this place to face the charges against him and is confined in the jail here. He will be given a hearing this morning.

Twenty-six barrels of beer consigned to the Latin-American settlement near the Fairbanks Scale Co. were seized yesterday morning by the Sheriff's department and taken to the municipal court rooms. Although on arrests have been made as yet, it is believed that interesting developments will follow this seizure and in the meantime the aforesaid colony is remarkably dry.

YOUNG GOLDEN WEDDING

"Uncle Sam" and Wife Had Family Gathering Last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Young were the happy host and hostess of a family dinner party on Saturday when their entire family, children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren helped them celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. It was a happy party that sat down to a bounteous repast in the serving of which Mrs. Harry Somers assisted the family. The house was gay with flowers, among them two huge bunches of carnations containing 50 each, a bouquet of pink roses to take the place of the ones Mrs. Young carried on her wedding day half a century ago, and many other cut flowers and potted plants.

hold their golden wedding festivities there had not the repairs on the building prevented. The first year of their married life was spent in Detroit where Mr. Young was holding a position at the time of his marriage in the cattle yards. Returning to Vermont they purchased a farm in Waterford where they spent the next 24 years. In 1889 they sold this 60 their eldest son and came to St. Johnsbury where their two youngest sons entered school. They bought a lot on Ely street on which they built a house and Mr. Young started the Summerville Wood Yard. He sold this business in 1899 and started the Young woodyard which he retained until two years ago when he retired and he and Mrs. Young went to South Sudbury, Mass., to make their home with their youngest

The gifts included a beautiful gold-headed ebony cane from the children to Mr. Young, suitably engraved, a gold-headed silk umbrella for Mrs. Young from her children, a chair and many smaller gifts. Mr. Young presented his wife with a gold wedding ring while she gave him a pair of gold bowled spectacles. They presented each of their children with a fine picture of themselves taken in their home sitting room.

As "Uncle Sam" Mr. Young has become a familiar acquaintance of many who do not know him by his surname and all join in extending congratulations to him and Mrs. Young on the happy event so happily celebrated.

Mr. and Mrs. Young were married April 25, 1864 in the old St. Johnsbury house and were planning to son. They were so homesick in Massachusetts, however, that they came back to Vermont to be near the old friends and see the old familiar places. Mr. Young was born in Waterford, August 2, 1839 and was spent practically his whole life in this section. He remembers attending the first cattle fair ever held here and in all the years since has missed but one fair. Mrs. Young, who was Lucy Newton, is a native of Holland where she was born November 17, 1841. Her childhood was spent at St. Johnsbury Center and in Waterford where she attended school. She is the only surviving Civil War army nurse in Vermont, a member of the Army-Nurses association, and recalls with interest her experiences at Camps Baxter, Ad-

A Woman Is Sceptical About Advertised Bargains:

She generally accepts my Motto, "Don't take my word for it but investigate". The men are different. For instance, I have had an advertisement in the last three issues of this paper, claiming to save you one-half on your insurance, on each $1,000.00 policy, in the residential district of the village over certain Co's. During the past 15 or 20 years I have repeatedly advertised this same proposition, guaranteeing that if I could not convince you of the fact to your satisfaction, I would make you a present of a policy.

How many men do you suppose have ever investigated this proposition? I think I could count them on the fingers of my right hand. If the women looked after the insurance protection I am inclined to think they would look up my claim. The offer still holds good and whether Men or Women call, I will try and convince you that I speak only the truth.
